About Chef Amadeus

Winner of Food Network's Extreme Chef Mexican Showdown Chef Amadeus' love for food was cultivated by his Puerto Rican grandmother and Philadelphia-born mother. As a child, he spent countless hours in the kitchen with the two women where he learned to create delicious, home-cooked meals—a passion that drives the Sessions with Chef Amadeus cooking and dining experiences. About Jax Foodie Adventure

Jax Foodie Adventures are Adventure meals organized by Jax Restaurant Reviews. Typically we work with a restaurant to offer a multi-course small plates meal to spotlight the amazing food happening here in Jacksonville. Our goal is to provide a dining experience of both on and off menu items as well as a chance to interact with the Chef. For More Information

About Azucena

Azucena Corner Deli is located in the heart of downtown Jacksonville and offers the very first 10-tap PourMyBeer system in Northern Florida. . We are also proud to offer wraps and meals freshly cooked with ingredients from local farmers and a broad selection of wine served in an authentic environment built by local carpenters and former felons. Azucena Corner Deli will help drive our constant thirst of seeking new opportunities to provide back to the entire Jacksonville community. It is our goal to empower residents to take pride in the growth of our community as well. For More Information
